F.A.Qs

Q. Can I try Sodexo Performance Suite to see if it's right for me?

A. We can take you through a demo and show you how it will benefit your business. As the system is based online, you can take your time to try it out and see if it is right for your business

Q. Will I need any specific training or technical skills to use it?

A. We will offer you training but it is designed to be easy to use. The set up process is very straightforward. Alternatively, for an additional charge you can outsource the set up of your reward scheme to our programme managers

Q. How long will it take me to set up Sodexo Performance Suite for my company?

A. The system is designed to be up and running in about two hours! Obviously if you want to customise it further this will take a little longer

Q. Will I have to spend hours of my time managing the scheme?

A. No, a typical scheme takes less than one hour per week to manage

Q. What do I have to do to get Sodexo Performance Suite started?

A. Call a member of the Sodexo team today on 01276 418888 and we'll get you on your way to improving your business performance

What is Sodexo Performance Suite?

Sodexo Performance Suite is a web based business solution which allows you to create, manage and deliver powerful reward schemes.

The platform will help you efficiently communicate your key business objectives, motivate your employees and customers and stimulate your business performance.

Do you want a proven track record? Using Sodexo Performance Suite can improve company performance up to 300%

How does it work?

Sign up to Sodexo Performance Suite, get online (no installation required) and get started.

To set up a reward scheme for your business simply:

- ➔ Enter the objectives that you want your employees to meet
- ➔ Define the duration of the activity and how you will measure it
- ➔ Enter your chosen participants
- ➔ Decide how you will communicate your reward programme to your employees: via email, SMS, newsletter or fax – whichever suits your business best

Call us now on 01276 418888

What are the benefits?

For you:

1. An instant online reward campaign which can be updated in real time, making it relevant and exciting for your participants
2. The platform can be customised for your company – using your logo and your business objectives
3. Reduces your workload by taking your objectives and KPIs and transferring them into clear targets and communicating them to your staff
4. Gives you a 360° view of your campaign – you control the targets and monitor how the participants are performing
5. Enables you to treat each member of staff, or customer, individually with tailored rewards
6. Ensures your staff stay motivated whilst meeting your business objectives
7. Rewards are more relevant for the participant, which encourages greater performance
8. Provides you with results and calculates your ROI
9. Can be rolled out on a pan-European and international platform as it is points based, rather than currency based
10. Allows you to share the information and results with other managers

For your staff and customers:

- They choose their own reward – a real motivator!
- They check their current targets online and monitor their performance
- Extensive rewards catalogue available – choice of thousands of products
- Wish List functionality with links to their current and potential points total – creates aspiration and motivation
- They receive individually addressed communication with updates – making them feel appreciated
